100 Dollars Reward.
LOPES from Fairfield, in the county of Frederick and Commonwealth of Virginia, on or about the 7th day of March last, a negro slave named AN-THONY the property of the late William B. Page deceased. Anthony is a about 5 feet 9 inches in height, of a substantial form, a light yellow complection, and rather of an effeminate voice.
He is about 28 years of age, was brought up a house servant and has been accustomed to that course of employment all his life. He is a slave of great capacity and considerable ingenuity—he reads—he plays the fiddle—and possesses a great mechanical turn—he can do rough carpenters' work and make combs. The above reward will be given if Anthony should be apprehended at the distance of 100 miles from Fairfield, and brought to the subscribers living in Alexandria.
But if apprehended at the distance of less than 100 miles, Fifty Dollars will be given if he is secured in goal, and notice given to the subscribers.
